

January 5, 2010
IUSM, Fairbanks Hall (Room 5005)
6pm-8:00pm

Purpose

IUSM Office of the Dean bi-annually hosts Aesculapian Medical Society meetings in order to further reinforce the relationship between IUSM and the Aesculapian Medical Society. Three objectives will be met:

- 1) increase dialogue
- 2) increase utilization of one another as a resource for support and information
- 3) identify areas in which we will work together to develop and successfully implement existing or newly created programs and initiatives that address specific identified areas of need, successes, and challenges for all IUSM students, faculty, staff, residents, and alumni, with a particular emphasis on individuals of color.

Agenda

6:00-6:30 Dinner Reception

6:30-8:00 Dinner and working meeting as follows

6:20-6:30	Welcome	Dr. George Rausch, Associate Dean for Diversity Affairs, IUSM Dr. Andrew Moore, Aesculapian Medical Society, Treasurer
6:30-6:40	Introductions
6:40-6:50	IUSM update	Dr. George Rausch, Associate Dean for Diversity Affairs, IUSM
6:50-6:55	Website preview	Jose Espada, Director, Med Student Financial Services, IUSM
6:55-7:25	Special Topic	What tools, resources, & support exist to assist minority physicians with increasing minority participation in clinical trials/sample collection studies
	6:55-7:05	Dr. Cynthia Helphingstine, President and Chief Operating Officer Crystal Dotson-Roberts, Director of Community Outreach & Engagement Fairbanks Institute for Healthy Communities
	7:05-7:15	"Enhancing Minority Clinical Participation thorough Community Partnership" Rivienne Shedd-Steele, Director, Health Disparities and Outreach Romnee Clark-Seaberg, MD, Assoc. Prof. of Clinical Medicine Indiana University Melvin and Bren Simon Cancer Center
	7:15-7:20	Francis Jones, Innovative Clinical Concepts
7:20-7:35	SNMA Updates
7:35-8:00	Open Dialogue	(or topic of Aesculapian's choice)
8:00	Adjourned	